Have You Been to Your NewHolly Community Building Office Yet?

NewHolly is an exciting neighborhood filled with community activities and events, interesting people, and many unique amenities like the Neighborhood Campus, Local Parks, Trails, Retail Stores, and Southeast Neighborhood Service Center, & Health Clinic.

NewHolly also has it's own full time Community Building Office provided by the Seattle Housing Authority. The goal of the Community Building Team is to support resident leadership, community strengths, positive relationships, local committee activities, volunteerism, block parties, social and cultural events, and the special neighborhood events like the summertime NewHolly Family Fun Fest, Multicultural New Year Potluck Dinner, and the quarterly Neighborhood Nights where all NewHolly neighbors are welcomed to come learn about their neighborhood, apply for local funding, enjoy a free dinner, and meet one another! Neighborhood Nights are always at the NewHolly Campus.

If you would like to stay connected to what is happening in your neighborhood, please join the community email group newhollyneighbors@yahoo.com. You can also read the community VOICE newspaper & neighborhood flyers that are delivered to your house each month. You're always welcomed to come visit a committee or event to check it out or to join the group. If you need an interpreter, please call ahead and we can arrange one for you free of charge.

If you have an idea for a local community project, Joy can help All NewHolly neighbors access money and support from:
NewHolly Community Building Endowment ($5,000 every year)
Department of Neighborhoods Matching Fund ($250-15,000)
+ other Public and Private resources.

Please come visit your NewHolly Community Building Office at the NewHolly Neighborhood Campus – Family Building.
