Individuals transitioning out of incarceration may not apply directly to SHA's Reintegration Housing pilot. Liberated individuals must be referred through an organization that has established a Referral Partner relationship with SHA. Please complete this form and submit it to SHA to express your interest in becoming a Referral Partner with SHA's Reintegration Housing pilot. Someone from SHA will contact you.

Summarize how you engage with currently incarcerated or recently liberated individuals. Please be sure to include any services you provide.

How do you think partnering with SHA's Reintegration Housing pilot would help meet the needs of your clients?

How would your organization identify and select individuals for referral to SHA's Reintegration Housing pilot?

To learn more, see the SHA Reintegration Housing web page. If you have questions or to submit this form, please email: reintegration@seattlehousing.org
