

Seattle Housing Authority

Reintegration Housing

Release of Information consent form

If you are referred to the Seattle Housing Authority's (SHA's) Reintegration Housing Program (RH) pilot, and you agree to participate in this program, you must sign this release of information consent form (ROI). This ROI allows SHA, along with the entities working together as part of the RH pilot (entities listed below), to:

- Determine your initial and continuing eligibility for the RH pilot;
- Coordinate ongoing support services and operations of the RH pilot;
- Monitor the RH pilot's performance; and
- Use data from the RH pilot for research and evaluation purposes.

Information about your participation in the RH pilot that SHA may share includes your:

- First and last name;
- Email address;
- Phone number;
- Preferred language spoken;
- Department of Corrections number;
- Earned release date;
- RH pilot eligibility status (and denial reason, if applicable);
- Identified support service needs;
- Duration of participation in RH pilot, including enrollment status and, if applicable, reasons for early termination or withdrawal from the RH pilot; and
- Participation in support services made available by the RH pilot (including the types of support services received and the frequency of use of those services).

SHA may share the above information with the following entities:

- Washington State Department of Corrections;
- Peer Navigator organization;
- External research and evaluation firms; and
- Other social service entities providing RH pilot supports.

The information you provide on the Reintegration Housing Individual referral form and while enrolled in the RH pilot will be kept confidential, will not be shared by SHA with entities other than those listed in this ROI, and will be stored securely to protect your personally identifiable information. Any information shared by SHA with the public, including external research and evaluation firms, will not include your name or any other identifying information without your written consent.

Your signature below confirms that you have read this ROI, or it has been read to you, and you understand its content and agree to allow SHA to share information about your participation in the RH pilot with the entities listed in this ROI for the purposes listed in this ROI. You further understand that you can revoke this ROI by providing SHA with written notice of your intent to revoke your consent. You further understand that any information already released at the time of any revocation of your consent may be used as stated in this ROI.
