

Google Translate

The internet has a wealth of knowledge and SHA wants tenants to be able to get the most updated and relevant news in any language. Google Translate will translate any web page from English to more than 100 languages. You can access this feature at the top left of the SHA website. Follow the steps below to translate instantly.

1. Open seattlehousing.org in your web browser.

2. Navigate your cursor to "Select Language" at the top left corner above "Housing."

3. Click on the drop-down menu to select your language
