

Seattle Housing Authority

Providing housing, preventing homelessness

As the largest affordable housing provider in Seattle, the Seattle Housing Authority plays a critical role in preventing and reducing homelessness. SHA ensures that thousands of families, seniors, veterans, people with disabilities and others in our community have a safe, stable home and the ability to live their lives free from the fear or reality of homelessness.

SHA's Homelessness Impact

Committed Resources*

SHA works with community partners to target subsidy into specific units and special programs serving people exiting homelessness.

$50 million dedicated annually to housing formerly homeless

$26,847,000

$24.373.000

Source: Successful special purpose funding applications

Source: SHA regular budget

3,041 units + 1,499 tenant-based subsidies dedicated to housing formerly homeless

- 1,246 vouchers to units in partnership with the Seattle Housing Levy (461+785)
- 1,983 vouchers to Permanent Supportive Housing units (785+1,198)
- 597 vouchers to other units serving people exiting homelessness
- 1,499 tenant-based vouchers to people exiting homelessness

4,540 unduplicated total

People Served*

More than half of all new households were previously homeless

New households who were previously homeless identify as

21%

17%

Families with children

Seniors

61%

Black, Indigenous and Other People of Color (BIPOC)

For more information: seattlehousing.org